On January 14, 2025, defendant made her initial appearance in the above-entitled action and was arraigned. AUSA Paul Jensen appeared on behalf of the United States. Attorney Andrew Schultz appeared on defendant’s behalf.

Prior to her initial appearance, defendant was incarcerated by the State of Wisconsin at the Taycheedah Correction Institution. After the Indictment in this case was returned and an arrest warrant issued, a detainer was filed by the United States with the Wisconsin prison officials. Pursuant to the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act (“IADA”), defendant’s appearance before this court for her initial appearance and arraignment was secured by a writ of habeas corpus ad prosequendum.

At her initial appearance and arraignment, defendant was advised of her rights under the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act (“IADA”) to continued federal custody until the charges set forth in the Indictment are adjudicated. Defendant waived in open court the anti-shuttling provisions of the IADA and agreed to remain in the custody of the State of Wisconsin (the “sending state” under the IADA) at the Taycheedah Correction Institution pending further proceedings in this case initiated by the United States (the “receiving state” under the IADA).

The court accepts defendant's waiver, finding that it was made knowingly and intelligently, voluntarily, and upon advice of counsel. Accordingly, the court ORDERS that defendant be returned to and housed in the "sending state" under the IADA pending further proceedings or until further order of the court. Further, pursuant to defendant's waiver, the return of the defendant to her place of incarceration pending trial shall not be grounds under the IADA for dismissal of the charges set forth in the Indictment.

Dated this 14th day of January, 2025.
